Additional Backup Information

The ordinance and exhibit for this item update the city charter to reflect recent charter amendments approved by the voters on November 6, 2012. Final formatting (e.g., spacing, indentation) will be set by American Legal Publishing Corporation, the company that publishes the city's code. The redline document in backup for this item is for reference and shows insertions and deletions, with bolded letters indicating where text has been edited to conform with city drafting guidelines (e.g., spelling out the word "eight"). The redline document also notes the general location of each proposition's language. Note that with the passage of Proposition 4, portions of Proposition 4 that are not in conflict with Proposition 3 have been integrated (see redline pages 8, 17, 19, 24, 25).
